

MOTION

BY

MR. MORRIS,

In relation to the adjournment and meeting of Congress.

JUNE 5, 1838.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Resolved, That, with the consent of the House of Representatives, the Senate will, on Monday, the 2d day of July next, adjourn its present session, until the 2d Monday in November following, and that during such recess, no member or officer of the Senate shall be entitled to, or receive, any daily compensation.

Resolved, further, That the consent of the House of Representatives to the adjournment of the Senate, according to the foregoing resolution, be requested.

Blair & Rives, printers.

NOTION

MR. MORRIS

Resolved, That with the consent of the House of Representatives, the Senate will, on Monday, the 3d day of July next, adjourn its present session until the 3d Monday in November following, and that during such recess no member or officer of the Senate shall be entitled to or receive any daily compensation.

Resolved, That the consent of the House of Representatives to the adjournment of the Senate, according to the foregoing resolution, be requested.
Read & twice printed